Contested races develop in Upshur GOP

By Phillip Williams

Three contested races for precinct chairmanships on the Upshur County Republican Party's executive committee developed just before Saturday's filing deadline for the May 24 election, said county GOP Chairman De'Borah Deaz.

Deanna Leslie filed to run against Precinct 6 incumbent Jackie Oliver, while Mary Anne Farrow filed to run against Precinct 10 incumbent John Melvin Dodd, and Sherry Breedlove filed to challenge Bridget Fowler for the Precinct 9 seat being vacated by Pam Dean, said Deaz.

In addition, Precinct 13 incumbent Stacy McMahan filed Saturday to seek re-election without opposition, said Deaz. She also said she rejected Precinct 18 incumbent David Royer's application to run because he forgot to have it notarized.

That leaves no candidates for Royer's seat, nor the Precinct 5 seat vacated months ago by Blanton Dawson's death. The three contested races for the 19-seat committee, however, mark the first time in recent memory that so many seats have been contested.

On the Democratic side, only two unopposed incumbents, Thelma Carlyn Short in Precinct 2 and Vernell Jeffery in Precinct 7, filed to run in the party's May 24 election, said county Democratic Chairman Winifred Jackson.

Due to redistricting, the precinct chairs will be elected not in the March 1 primary, but during the parties' respective runoff elections. Unopposed candidates' names will not even appear on the ballot as they will be automatically elected..

The parties' respective county chairman elections, however, will appear on the March 1 ballot. Deaz is opposed for re-election to a second term by party secretary Carl Byers, while Jackson escaped opposition for re-election.

Madison Barrett is unopposed for the Precinct 17 chairmanship held by Byers.

Unopposed GOP incumbents who filed, and their precinct numbers, include Lanette Crittenden, 1; Jesse Loffler, 2; Lew Miller, 3; Deborah Hodge, 4; Tom Williams, 7; Charlie Pelezo, 8; Brenda Kelsey Beal, 11; Mickey Denton, 12; Judy Dodson Crowder, 14; Carolyn Wade, 15; John Ussery, 16; and Madaline Barber, 20. (There is no Precinct 19 seat as that precinct was merged with another one.)

Man gets 50-year sentence

By Phillip Williams

A judge in Gilmer sentenced Jonathan Davis Gilliam of Gladewater to 50 years in prison on Tuesday of last week after the defendant pleaded guilty to aggravated assault with a deadly weapon on a Gladewater woman, said Upshur County District Attorney Billy Byrd.

Gilliam, 41, was sentenced by 115th District Judge Dean Fowler, said Byrd. The defendant had been to prison twice and was on parole when the Jan. 31, 2021 assault on Sherri Perkins occurred in her home, the prosecutor added.

In a press release, Byrd said "the defendant, while unprovoked, took a three-pound sledgehammer and struck the victim (who he knew) in the back of the head from behind, causing her to fall to the floor." Gilliam then "bent down and hit her again" before fleeing the residence with the hammer while Perkins' husband called 911, the prosecutor wrote.

Gladewater police later found and arrested the defendant, while Perkins was life-flighted to a Tyler hospital, Byrd added. Although she recovered, she is "still not herself following this attack" (mentally or physically) and "witnesses at the scene believed she had died that night," the district attorney wrote.

Gilliam, who had been sentenced in Upshur County to prison in January 2020 on a methamphetamine charge, had been recently been released on parole before the assault, Byrd added.

The assault case brought against him was "enhanced" due to his prior criminal record, meaning he could receive a harsher sentence for the offense. He must serve half the 50-year term "day for day" before becoming eligible for parole, Byrd wrote.

Gilmer attorney Matthew Patton represented the defendant.

$30 Trillion!

The US national debt now tops $30,000,000,000,000. It's a whopping number which far exceeds gross domestic product (as it has for almost a decade). While it isn't a cause for panic, it's also not to be ignored.

A common question is - "who are the creditors?". Some of the money is simply the government owing itself (such as the Social Security Trust) and some results from promises by politicians which could change over time. Federal Reserve Banks and private domestic investors also hold a large segment. Together, these shares are about 70% of the total. The remainder is held by foreign governments, banks, and investors. The governments of China and Japan each hold over $1 trillion, with many countries holding hundreds of millions.

As long as investors are confident of repayment, they will keep buying US treasuries. New debt retires old debt, and the cycle continues. The global standard for safe investments has long been US treasuries, and demand for them will persist and likely grow in an increasingly uncertain world (unless, of course, the games that Congress plays with the ceiling become more serious).

These are the ample reasons not to overreact. We owe ourselves to a large extent, and it's a common practice for foreign governments and investors to hold each other's debt. Nonetheless, it needs to be systematically addressed.

One concern is how rapidly the debt has accelerated. Federal debt reached $1 trillion in the early 1980s after two centuries, and it wasn't until the Great Recession that it exceeded $10 trillion. Only nine years later, it topped $20 trillion. Just five years after that, we're at $30 trillion. The pandemic caused a spike, much of which was essential to keep families, small businesses, and major industries viable. The crimson ink during the prior 11 years of prosperity is another matter entirely.

Debt requires interest payments. With ultra-low rates, this is somewhat manageable, but the cost will escalate as rates increase. Much of the debt is short term in nature; thus, new bonds with higher rates will quickly be required. These additional outlays limit flexibility to meet legitimate governmental priorities, such as national defense, infrastructure development, and public health and safety. Another issue is "crowding out," as savings dollars are diverted away from banks and other private entities which relend the money in a productive way, thus driving prosperity and innovation.

A more sustainable fiscal strategy requires two exceedingly rare things in Washington - bipartisanship (as it necessitates changes in both spending and taxes) and a vision beyond the next election (as the most viable approaches are multi-generational). Need I say more?! It's not an immediate crisis, but it needs to be rationally attacked sooner rather than later.

Stay safe!

Mail-in ballot applications rejected at high rate

Mail-in ballot applications for the March 1 primary are being rejected by almost 40% — largely because of a missing ID number, which is now required after a new voting bill passed the Legislature last year.

The Houston Chronicle reported that nearly four in 10 Harris County mail ballot applications had been rejected as of last week. Early voting began Feb. 14, and the deadline for mail ballot requests is Feb. 18.

Other counties across Texas also reported high rejection rates, including Travis, Williamson, Hays and Bastrop counties, the Austin American-Statesman reported. Those seeking to vote by mail must include a driver's license number, a state ID number, or in some cases the last four digits of their Social Security number. If what the applicant provides doesn't match the applicant's individual voter registration information, the application must be rejected.

Texas has one of the strictest vote-by-mail requirements in the country. Registered voters are eligible to vote by mail if they are 65 years or older; sick or disabled; out of the county on election day and during the early voting period; expected to give birth within three weeks before or after election day; or confined in jail but otherwise eligible.

Early voting continues through Feb. 25.

Drought conditions improve slightly

The latest drought map for the state shows a slight improvement as of Feb. 1, with 84% of the state experiencing some level of drought, down three percentage points from the previous month. Dr. Mark Wentzel, hydrologist with the Texas Water Development Board, said there were some improvements in the last month, mainly in East Texas. Additional rainfall in early February, mainly in East Texas and Central Texas, should improve conditions by the next report in March.

Wide swaths of the Panhandle and the Great Plains are experiencing the worst drought conditions.

Texas top exporting state for 20th year

Data released last week by the U.S. Census Bureau showed Texas as the top exporting state in the nation for the 20th consecutive year. The state exported $375.3 billion in goods last year, more than California and New York combined. The state also led the nation in tech exports for the ninth year in a row.

"Made in Texas is a powerful global brand, and the Lone Star State continues to dominate the nation in exports, thanks to our unrivaled and productive workforce, robust infrastructure and welcoming business environment," Gov. Greg Abbott said.

Funding available for clean school bus program

An estimated $13 million in grant funding is available under the Texas Clean School Bus Program to replace or retrofit school buses to reduce exposure to their diesel exhaust. The Texas Commission on Environmental Quality is accepting applications from school districts statewide.

Grants are given on a first-come, first-served basis. Districts can be reimbursed for all of the costs to retrofit buses, or 80% of the costs to replace older buses with newer, cleaner models, according to TCEQ.

Only buses used daily are eligible. While the deadline is in October, funding typically runs out when enough applications are received. More information can be found at www.terpgrants.org.

Power generators under scrutiny

During early February's winter storm, the state's electrical grid withstood increased demand, with few outages reported. Regulators are crediting increased inspections by the Electric Reliability Council of Texas during December.

The Dallas Morning News reports ERCOT inspected 324 generators and transmission systems in December; the Public Utility Commission handed down $7.5 million in fines for companies not filing weatherization plans by the deadline.

"We've been working for the last year to make sure that this grid is more reliable than it ever has been in the past — and it is," interim ERCOT CEO Brad Jones said a few days before snow and sleet hit.

In addition to increased inspections, legislation passed last regular session required power generators to winterize their plants. Additionally, alternate fuel sources are required if natural gas isn't available. While this year's storm wasn't nearly as severe as Winter Storm Uri in 2021, thus far the grid has stood up to increased demand.

PARENTS, WHAT ARE YOU TEACHING YOUR CHILDREN?

A public service TV ad showed an angry father with drug paraphernalia demanding his teenage son tell him who taught him how to use drugs. Finally, the sullen son turned to his father and curtly said: "You taught me how to use those things." The short ad ends with an off-camera voice saying "Parents who use drugs have children who use drugs." It is not always true that parents who use drugs have children who use drugs. However, it is often true, that parents who use drugs have children who use drugs. The influence self-indulgent parents exert upon their children, more often than not, is so strong that most children follow in their steps.

It is interesting how people can see what a detrimental influence drug-taking parents can be on their children, while, at the same time, being blind to the similar influence other sinful practices also have on children. For example, let us modify what we are talking about. "Parents who view pornography have children who view pornography." "Parents who lie have children who lie." "Parents who use vulgar language and blaspheme God have children who do the same." "Parents who drink alcohol have children who drink alcohol." "Parents who neglect God and His Word have children who neglect God and His Word." Do you get the point? What is true of drug addiction is also true of many other wrong and hurtful practices.

I read a little poem that went something like this: "A careful man I want to be, a little fellow follows me. I do not dare to go astray, for fear he'll go the self-same way." It is important for parents, and grandparents (since I am one) to realize what a strong influence we exert on children, and to live so that strong influence is a good influence. Someone wrote: "Young people set their watches, for right time or wrong, by the watches of their parents." Think on these things.

Critical race theory condemned by candidate

By Phillip Williams

Texas Minority Coalition president Stanley Cofer condemned the teaching of critical race theory in schools in an address to the Republican Women of Upshur County last Thursday, charging it is "reverse racism" in which "I (a black man) become the oppressor (and) you (whites) become the oppressed."

Cofer and A.D. Atholi, one of four candidates for the GOP nomination for District 1 U.S. representative, spoke to the women's group at Barbwire Halo Cowboy Church outside Gilmer.

Cofer charged that those favoring the theory were trying to divide the nation, alleged their action was all political, and said CRT creates a "victim mentality" as "we got race baiters" saying "the white man (has) got his foot on your neck."

"I'm here to say let's join hands together," Cofer told his predominantly white audience. "I don't want you to feel guilty" for what happened to blacks 50, 80, or 400 years ago, he added, saying American Indians and even blacks themselves owned slaves..

He asserted that longtime black activists Al Sharpton and Jesse Jackson "want us to stay at each other's throats" because "it packs their pockets." So "Don't bring me no garbage (saying that) I'm worse off than in the 50s and 60s" (when controversial "Jim Crow" laws were used to limit African-Americans' rights.)

In addition, the pastor of the New Life Worship Center in Tyler said political left wingers are "sharing their narrative" of CRT, aimed at "keeping us (blacks and whites) fighting one another.'

The theory "doesn't tell the true story of history," Cofer said. It is alleged that all whites oppressed African-Americans, but there were "good white abolitionists that gave up their lives" fighting slavery.

Slavery "is the result of sin," but while blacks were "brought here (to America) as slaves, it was all in the plans of God" and the Republican Party was founded to "get rid of" the practice, Cofer said..

"Just as Joseph was sold into slavery by his brothers (in the Bible), so were many of my ancestors," Cofer said, adding "We must be like Joseph" in knowing enslavement was in God's plans to achieve His pur-

Cofer complained that "we don't hear" success stories about Republicans helping blacks. Instead, "all you see on TV (about African-Americans) is Antifa (a controversial political movement) and (black people's) pants hanging down."

He cited notable black Americans' "success stories," including Dr. Mildred Jefferson, the first black woman to graduate with a degree in surgery from Harvard, scientist George Washington Carver, educator Booker T. Washington and neurosurgeon Dr. Ben Carson, who served in President Trump's cabinet.

Cofer also noted that Congess' first black member was a Republican, and that it was Republican presidents who sent troops to Little Rock to racially integrate the schools (in 1957), signed legislation making Martin Luther King Jr.'s birthday a national holiday (in the 1980s), and made February the official month for Black History Month (in the 1970s.)

Early primary voting begins

By Phillip Williams

Some 173 early votes had been cast as of late Monday afternoon for the March 1 party primaries in Upshur County--167 Republican and six Democrat, said county Election Administrator Lory Harle.

Early voting continues at her office on the Upshur County Courthouse's second floor in Gilmer from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. through Friday, and from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m. on Tuesday through Friday of next week. (No voting will be held Monday since it is Presidents' Day, a federal holiday, Harle said).

She said she would describe the turnout on Monday as "moderate, probably."

The Republican ballot has only two contested races for county public office, and also a contest for county GOP chairman. No Democrats are seeking county office and county Democratic Chairman Winifred Jackson is unopposed for re-election.

In the GOP primary, incumbent Karen Bunn opposes Nicole Hernandez in the race for district clerk, while Precinct 3 Justice of the Peace Rhonda Welch faces challenger Ashleigh Duncan in Welch's bid for re-election.

GOP Chairman De'Borah Deaz is opposed for re-election by party secretary Carl Byers, who said Monday the county's GOP executive committee, including Deaz, on Saturday voted to condemn "a slanderously fabricated news article" about him. Byers declined to give details.

SOLUTION

ELECT ASHLEIGH DUNCAN

for Upshur County Justice of the Peace in Precinct 3 My name is Ashleigh Duncan and I am seeking the position of Upshur County Justice of the Peace in Precinct 3. I have been a Christian Republican all my life. I believe strongly in our conservative traditional family values. I support the Right For Life and plan to share my personal story in Austin. I support our Right to Bear Arms and hope to work closely with the NRA to make sure our rights are protected. I fully support our military and veterans. I have had the opportunity of joining the Emergency rescue response team in Big Sandy and surrounding areas. I believe we should all have our own personal liberty and not be mandated to take vaccines to keep our jobs.

I believe in Border Control. I believe in our small businesses being able to grow and prosper, not the big corporates taking our livelihood. I believe in term limits. I want to work closely with our Elderly and our veterans so they may contact me with any concerns and try to be apart of a solution. This will be my only full time job so I can ensure the sub courthouse will be open during business hours and be fully operational. I will work with our local law enforcement and be available when called upon to address any situation that occurs, and help them in emergency situations. I will work with our commissioners to address the concerns within our precinct. My goal is to bring fairness and compassion to our justice system for all. I want to be a positive change for our Precinct. I have a heart for the younger generation and the senior citizens.

I feel I can bridge the gap in between with the younger upcoming republicans. I'm just a normal country girl that wants to make a change for the community. I don't claim to have all the answers. But I will be involved and fighting for the solutions. I would appreciate your consideration when voting at the polls on March 1st.

Thank y'all and God bless!

6 easy steps to successfully planting a tree

Late fall through early spring is the perfect time to plant tree seedlings in Texas! This is because the cooler temperatures allow trees much needed time for root development and acclimation to their new environment without the added stress of the hot Texas sun.

When planting a tree, it is important to remember: Right Tree, Right Place! This means that you should always consider the mature size of your tree and its needs before planting it. You want your tree to have plenty of room for the canopy and roots to grow - you never want it too close to a house or under power lines.

To successfully plant a tree, follow these 6 easy

1. Dig a hole that is at least 2 times wider than the diameter of the root ball but not so deep that the tree's root flare (where the trunk flares out to the roots) is below soil grade.

2. Remove tree from container and work the roots to ensure separation. If roots are curled in the shape of the container, ensure that you break them up and try to straighten them out a bit.

3. Place tree into hole, ensuring that the root flare is slightly above the natural

4. Gently fill the hole with the same soil that came out of the hole. Do not add soil amendments. While you want to remove air pockets,

Online East Texas Pasture Management Program set Feb. 18

The 2022 East Texas pasture management program will take place online Feb. 18.

The virtual East Texas Pasture Management program will run from 8:30 a.m.-3 p.m. on Feb. 18. The event will be held on the Zoom meeting platform.

The cost for the Texas A&M AgriLife Extension Service event is $35. Participants must preregister by 4 p.m. on Feb. 17 at https:// tx.ag/ETxPastureMgmt or by calling AgriLife Events at 979-845-2604.

Five Texas Department of Agriculture continuing education units are available for pesticide applicators — three general, one laws and regulations, and one integrated pest management.

"Herbicides for weed management can be both safe and cost-effective if used appropriately," said Vanessa Corriher-Olson, Ph.D., AgriLife Extension forage specialist, Overton. "There are two important steps in using herbicides. The first is to correctly identify the problem plant. The second is to follow the label directions."

Pasture management speakers, topics

Speakers include Corriher-Olson; Jason Banta, Ph.D., AgriLife Extension beef cattle specialist, Overton; Mark Matocha, Ph.D., AgriLife Extension state agriculture and environmental safety specialist, Bryan-College Station; Shelbie Powell, education and outreach coordinator, Southwest Center for Agricultural Health, Injury Prevention and Education, University of Texas at Tyler; and John Jennings, Ph.D., University of Arkansas Extension forage specialist.

do not pack down the soil tightly as this can damage fine roots.

5. Mulch around the tree at least out to the drip line. Mulch only needs to be 2-3 inches deep and should not touch the trunk.

6. Water the tree deeply and thoroughly. This will help settle the soil uniformly around the roots as well as reduce transplant shock. Water regularly for the first two years but make sure not to over water. A newly planted tree requires 6-8 gallons of water per diameter inch of trunk every week total. This includes precipitation and added water. An infrequent soak is better than light frequent watering.

young trees from animals and lawn equipment such as weed eaters because these can easily wound and kill your tree. It is typically better not to fertilize your tree within the first year as too much nitrogen can burn roots therefore growth and delaying growth and establishment.

DPS reminds CDL applicants about entry level driver training

AUSTIN – The Texas Department of Public Safety (DPS) is reminding applicants for a commercial driver license (CDL) or certain endorsements that the Entry Level Driver Training (ELDT) requirements begin Feb. 7, 2022. Recent inclement weather has closed some driver license offices; however, the federal requirement has not been delayed as a result of these closures.

The Federal Motor Carrier Safety Administration (FMCSA) oversees the ELDT regulations, which are designed to improve highway safety by ensuring entry level drivers of commercial motor vehicles complete minimum federal training requirements before being permitted to take certain CDL texts.

Anyone who is either applying for a Class A or Class B CDL for the first time, upgrading an existing CDL to a Class A or B, or obtaining a school bus (S), passenger (P) or hazardous materials (H) endorsement for the first time must meet ELDT requirements. Each state must electronically verify that an applicant completed the required training and certification process before administering a CDL skills test or prior to the knowledge test for an 'H' endorsement.

Commercial driving schools can become an approved ELDT provider by registering with FMCSA through its Training Provider Registry (TPR).

For more information about how the federal program works, how to become a certified Training Registry Provider and what schools are registered to provide ELDT training, visit the TPR site.

Customers wishing to obtain or upgrade to a CDL will need to book an appointment. To schedule an appointment or check availability, visit the online appointment scheduler. # Gilmer sets health fair

Medical screenings and health-related information will be available to the public at the free annual Upshur County Health Fair at the Gilmer Civic Center on Saturday, Feb. 26.

For more information, call County Extension Agent Julie York at 903-680-8128.

GOP makes endorsements

Cherokee Rose Republican Women voted to endorse candidates in several GOP primary races at the conclusion of a Feb. 7 forum where several contestants spoke outside Gilmer.

The club endorsed Nicole Hernandez for Upshur County district clerk, Smith County Judge Nathaniel Moran for District 1 U.S. representative, Gov. Greg Abbott for re-election, and U.S. Rep. Louie Gohmert for state attorney general. Of those, only Hernandez addressed the gathering at Lantana Activity Center, as did her opponent, incumbent Karen Bunn.

At a prior forum, the club had voted to endorse Carl Byers for county Republican chairman. Both he and his opponent, incumbent De'Borah Deaz, spoke at Monday night's forum.

The club chose not to make an endorsement in the Precinct 3 justice of the peace race between incumbent Rhonda Welch, seeking re-election, and Ashleigh Duncan, both of whom spoke.

Republican primary candidates for offices at the county, state and national level also addressed the gathering, as did some special speakers...

Besides candidates with no primary opponents, the speakers included two of the four GOP candidates for the District 1 Congressional seat, John Porro and Joe McDaniel, and District 5 State Rep. Cole Hefner, seeking re-election.
