

East Texas Regional Airport to receive $1M in COVID Relief Funds

East Texas Regional Airport was awarded two federal grants totaling $1,015,044 in relief funds following the economic distress caused by the ongoing COVID-19 pandemic, U.S. Sen. John Cornyn announced Monday. The funding, which was appropriated by Congress in December as part of the Coronavirus Relief and Response Supplemental Appropriations (CRRSA) Act, comes through the U.S. Department of Transportation.

"As we look to turn the corner on this deadly pandemic, it's critical that Texas airports are given every resource they need to handle the coming increase in travel," Sen. Cornyn said. "I applaud this announcement that will benefit the health and well-being of travelers in Gregg County."

One grant for $1,009,227 provides economic relief funds for costs related to operations, personnel, cleaning, sanitization, janitorial services, debt service payments, and combating the spread of pathogens at the airport.

A second grant worth $5,817 provides economic relief from rent and minimum annual guarantees to on-airport car rental, onairport parking, and in-terminal concessions located at primary airports.

Gladewater Lake store has new tenants

Gladewater Lake goers will soon have a place to buy food and drink and bait to fish with now that the city council has agreed on a lease to have Jade Kelly operate the bait shop.

The new business will be called "Off the Clock Bait Shop," and will open in May, if not sooner.

The city council voted to approve the lease at Thursday night's council meeting.

The new store operators will pay $850/monthly, which includes the use of the house next door to the store. The new store operators will issue lake permits on behalf of the city and clean and mow swimming and boating areas as part of the lease agreement. The lease also calls for the new tenant to lock the gates when access to the lake is prohibited and maintain the area around the buildings in an attractive manner.

The store will be open weekdays 8 a.m.-10 p.m. and on weekends

City trash pick-up change

By Jim Bardwell

Local trash collection service is changing soon - going from twice a week to once a week and everyone will need to start using 95-gallon rolling plastic containers supplied by Republic Services.

And while the price will not be going down with the one-time-a-week collection, the price will not be going up with the addition of the plastic containers. The city council, which approved the new five-year service contract, could have kept twice-a-week collection service, but it would have cost residents more than the council felt they would want to pay.

The new trash collection service plan was suggested by the Gladewater Beautification Board (GBB) and sent to the council to consider. The GBB said going to this new form of trash collection would have two major benefits - the plastic containers would stop stray dogs and cats from digging into bags placed on the street curb and leaving trash scattered in yards and streets, and by reducing the damage to the city's aging streets by cutting in half the number of days large heavy trash trucks roll down city streets and up alleys.

Officials understand there will most likely be some who will not like the new trash collection plan, but Gene Kennon, manager of government affairs for Republic Services said Gladewater was one of only four cities in his 30-city area that has twice-a-week collection service.

Kennon said people will begin to notice a cleaner Gladewater once the new system is online. He said "believe me, stray dogs know when it is trash day."

The City of Gladewater has posted a detailed list of Do's and Don'ts that will be associated with the changing service. An interactive mapping system will also be available soon.

Here is hat you will find at the City of Gladewater digital site:

New Residential Trash Service - Effective Monday, May 31, 2021

One 95-gallon trash cart will be delivered to residential and commercial hand collect addresses prior to May 31, 2021.

Trash will be collected once per week. If your trash was previously collected Monday- Thursday your new route day will be on Monday. If you previously had Tuesday -Friday trash collection your new route day will be either Tuesday or Friday. Please review the map for your designated trash collection day or call for assistance with your address ready.

All trash must be bagged and placed inside the cart to be picked up. Bagging your trash and keeping it in the provided container helps keep the city clean and litter free by preventing trash from blowing before and during service. Carts must be placed at the curb no later than 7 a.m. on your service day or the night before route day. All trash must be inside Republic Services issued trash poly-cart to be picked up by the automated truck.

7a.m.-10 p.m. The store has been vacant for more than a year. In other business, the council:

* Passed a resolution authorizing transfer of property to the Gladewater Independent School District.

* Passed a resolution regarding the TxDOT Aviation Runway Lighting Project with will enhance runway visibility for pilots. The project is a $90,500 project, but the city only has to pay 10-percent.

* Passed a resolution suspending CenterPoint's proposed effective

Neighboring White Oak also posted a slight increase with a 3.04-percent up tick - $84,823.01 compared to $82,318.46 in January 2020. PUC chair resigns in wake of call to energy investors

Arthur D'Andrea, the chair and sole remaining member of the Public Utility Commission, resigned late last week at the request of Gov. Gregg Abbott. D'Andrea pledged to remain on the PUC until Abbott names a replacement. In the announcement Abbott said in part, "Texans deserve to have trust and confidence in the Public Utility Commission, and this action is one of many steps that will be taken to achieve that goal."

Texas Monthly obtained a recording of a March 9 call D'Andrea had with investors to discuss the fallout from the mid-February power crisis, in the midst of a fierce statewide winter storm. In that 48-minute call, D'Andrea promised to put the "weight of the commission" in opposing efforts to reverse skyrocketing power rates during the blackouts.

Those efforts are being spearheaded by Lt. Gov. Dan Patrick, who in effect controls the Texas Senate. That body passed SB 242 last week, calling on the PUC and the Electrical Reliability Council of Texas to correct what Patrick called "billions in pricing errors that occurred" during the winter storm.

However, House Speaker Dade Phelan has called repricing "an extraordinary government intervention into the free market, which may have major consequences for both residential and commercial consumers going forward." The House is holding hearings on restructuring ERCOT and related issues this week.

Rise in pedestrian fatalities rings alarm bells

With spring arriving and COVID-19 restrictions easing, state officials warn that pedestrian deaths continue to increase each year. They urge both drivers and pedestrians to watch out for each other. According to the Texas Department of Transportation, pedestrian fatalities account for one in five of all state traffic fatalities.

In 2019, the latest year for which figures are available, 5,973 traffic crashes involved pedestrians, resulting in 669 deaths and 1,317 serious injuries.

The two leading causes of pedestrian fatalities are: 1) Pedestrians failing to follow traffic safety laws and being struck crossing streets and roadways, and 2) motorists failing to yield the right of way, driving distracted or driving too fast.

TxDOT's pedestrian safety campaign is a component of #EndTheStreakTX, a social media effort to encourage drivers to make safer choices, such as wearing a seat belt, driving the speed limit, not texting while driving, and never driving under the influence of alcohol or other drugs. The last deathless day on Texas roadways was Nov. 7, 2000.

COVID-19 vaccinations up more than million in a week

With more than 900,000 additional COVID-19 vaccines arriving in Texas this week, the state has now administered more than 9 million doses, according to the Texas Department of Health and Human Services. More than 3 million are now fully vaccinated, roughly 10.8% of the state's population.

...memories, magic & birthdays

I am fond of claiming to be a child bride. I married my sweetie when I was 19, so in today's world that claim rings true. I met that tall, handsome East Texan when I was 13. It was at church camp in Athens...and whatever teen magic, divine intervention and just flat out attraction that sparked, it stuck. And I am so glad that it did.

We were married five years before we went on our first vacation and that was to San Antonio. I was a history teacher who had never been to the Alamo. My master's thesis was on Sam Houston so a trek to San Jacinto soon followed. Jim once gave me a musket ball from the San Jacinto battlefield. Oddly, that gift is one of the most romantic I have ever received.

That is one of the neat things we share, Jim has a minor in history and our mutual fascination has taken us down backroads: to find international boundary markers between the Republic of Texas and Louisiana, to explore the mysterious Mounds near Natchez, pilgrimages to battlefields, graveyards and motorcycle road trips that require mandatory historical marker stops.

As empty nesters we finally learned the joy of travel as play, and its necessity in stress packed lives. Jimmy showed me Tombstone where I met Ike Clanton's great-grandson. Las Vegas where I met L. Frank Baum's ("Wizard of Oz") great-grandson, and on a steam engine trip from Durango to Silverton I met an English (as in England) professor who was a Dylan Thomas scholar with a kid-like fascination for steam engines. I have met descendants of those massacred at Wounded Knee in 1890...at Wounded Knee in 2007...a Buddhist monk from Tibet visiting the Grand Canyon...a fading TV star who played Apollo on the original "Battlestar Galactica". He visited with me for hours at a Sci-Fi convention. Richard Hatch told me all about the soon to be "Battlestar Galactica" where he would be a recurring character. You know, the series that has a cult following and now a (Katee Sackhoff) tie-in to the "Mandalorian" series.

Are you seeing a trend? It is not where we are but who we meet and the stories they tell because we ask. But really, the most important part of my adventure of a lifetime with my sweetheart is that he is the one I am sharing it with. That sounds sticky sweet and full of rainbows and unicorns, as one of my friends is fond of saying. So you do need to know that, yes, my sweetheart can drive me over the edge. Yes, he knows where all my buttons are waiting to be pushed. Yes, he lacks patience and often doesn't listen carefully. And yes, sometimes I would like to whack him with a 2x4.

BUT, he loves dogs, the country, my family, history, music and me. That is a lot to appreciate in a shared life. My Sweetheart's Birthday is Thursday. We have a much needed getaway planned in a couple of weeks which is a serendipitous b'day present that simply fell our way. And I can't wait to make new memories.

But old memories are cherished too. I remember so very clearly, that long ago day at the lake when I met a skinny, long-haired East Texan who chose me for the camp dance and just a few years down the road, me for life. And I chose right back. And it is a choice we have made over and over across our lifetime together.

I hope that you, dear reader, are choosing happiness and joy when you have the opportunity. Life is far too short and stressful to not do so. And while you are navigating the journey, occasionally try that road less traveled and never hesitate to get to know the characters along the way. The memories are gifts that continue to give throughout a lifetime.

Happiest of Birthdays Sweetheart and thanks for all the memories. May we have many more adventures in the years to come.

COVID-19 cases, deaths in state still dropping

The number of new COVID-19 cases in Texas dropped again last week, with 27,672 reported, down about 12 percent from the previous week. Deaths also dropped, with 932 reported, according to the Coronavirus Resource Center at Johns Hopkins University. That's down 16.5% from the previous week.

Hospitalizations of confirmed COVID-19 patients also continue to decrease, with 3,620 in Texas hospitals as of Sunday, according to DSHS. That's down 14.1% from the previous week and 75% lower than the record high of 14,218 hospitalizations in mid-January.

provisions crucial to sustaining the recovery but anything of significance grinds its way through the Congressional sausage-maker. Make no mistake, however, a substantial package was indeed necessary.

Many Americans will be receiving $1,400 checks, with the first payments beginning to arrive. An extra $300 weekly in unemployment for a year, an

The latest stimulus comes with a expansion of the child tax credit, will enhance overall growth. Other stressed entities are also supported, decreasing the chances of future meltdowns.

There is merit, however, to the claim that relief could have been more targeted. Even if an individual did not miss any paychecks through the pandemic, for instance, an aid check will still be forthcoming if income requirements are met. Moreover, many cities and states have not seen the notable declines in revenues which was feared. Distribution policy is rarely done with a scalpel, but rather a machete. Other provisions introduce questions of fairness or the incentives which are generated. At some point down the road, the total level of debt will come into play.

As I began saying a year ago, money into the spending stream this crisis was precipitated by the pandemic, and the keys to coming back robustly are (1) getting the virus under control and (2) keeping our economic structure and integrity together in the interim. The CARES Act helped initially, as did aggressive actions by the Federal Reserve, but this situation became worse and lasted longer than anticipated. The "skinny" bill passed last year was both too long in coming and insufficient in magnitude to hold things together.

As we continue to progress with vaccinations and therapeutics, the economic rebound will be enhanced. The stimulus package provides a bridge to the time when full operations can resume. It also helps individuals, companies, and public entities through daunting challenges. Imperfect, yet essential. Stay safe!

SET THINE HOUSE IN ORDER

We learn from 2 Kings 2: 20 that Hezekiah was sick to the point of death, and the prophet Isaiah came to him and told him the Lord had said: "Set thine house in order; for thou shalt die." (v. 1). The fact that he was told to set his house in order was evidence that it was out of order.

As long as there is sin in our life, our life is out of order. Therefore, we all should see the need to not only get our life in order, but also to keep it in order. All have sinned, and at times do sin. (Rom. 3: 23). We read in Gal. 3: 22: "But the Scripture has confirmed all under sin, that the promise by faith in Jesus Christ might be given to those who believe." First Kings 8: 46 says: "For there is no one who does not sin." The apostle Paul said: "What then? Are we better than they? Not at all. For we have previously charged both Jews and Greeks that they are all under sin." Then last, John said: "If we say that we have no sin" or that "we have not sinned" we deceive ourselves and the truth is not in us, making God a liar and His Word is not in us! (1 Jn. 1: 8, 10).

Sin separates one from God. (Isa. 59: 1-2). Thus, Proverbs 5: 22 says: "The evil deeds (his own iniquities) of a wicked man ensnare him; the cords of his sin hold him fast." Where does sin lead? According to Rom. 6: 23, "The wages of sin is death." Thus, in view of the consequences of sin, it is imperative that we recognize that as long as sin reigns in our lives, our lives are out of order!

We are responsible for setting our life in order. We are personally responsible for our decisions and actions. Stephen Covey said: "I am not a product of my circumstances. I am a product of my decisions." Foy L. Smith said: "The ability to accept responsibility is the measure of the man. John D. Rockefeller said: "I believe that every right implies a responsibility; every opportunity, an obligation; every possession a duty." Therefore, regardless of the actions of others, and the circumstances in which we find ourselves, we are personally responsible for our actions! (See Gal. 6: 7-8). Think on these things.

Former band booster president pleads guilty to stealing $27,000 from club

By Phillip Williams

A former Harmony ISD teacher who was president of the school's band boosters club has been placed on probation after pleading guilty to stealing $27,000 from the club, Upshur County District Attorney Billy Byrd's office announced Friday.

A judge placed Kristen Renae Denson, 46, of Gilmer, on 10 years "deferred adjudication" probation Feb. 9 after she pleaded to "theft of property of the value of $2,500 or more but less than $30,000 by public servant," the office said.

Deferred adjudication means no final conviction appears on her record if she successfully completes probation. She could receive the maximum sentence for the offense if such probation is revoked, however.

The Upshur County Grand Jury indicted Denson in 2019 on charges of stealing more than $27,000 from the club over a three-year period, Upshur County Sheriff's Chief Deputy David Hazel announced in December of that year.

Accompanied by her attorney, she turned herself in to the the money "for a variety of sheriff's office in Gilmer Dec. 23, 2019 and was released that day on bonds on two charges: misapplication of fiduciary property and theft by public servant, Hazel said. She had been indicted four days earlier and was booked into the county jail in Gilmer on warrants, authorities said.

In a news release shortly after her arrest, the chief deputy said Harmony ISD officials contacted the sheriff's office in August 2019 to report missing funds from the band booster account, and that school personnel had "discovered some anomalies." The sheriff's office then opened an investigation which determined Denson took $27,000 from the club account over a period ending in August 2019.

Byrd said Monday that Denson, who was sentenced by 115th District Judge Dean Fowler in Gilmer, received probation because she paid $27,000 restitution in mid-2020, appeared before school officials to admit the theft, and was "remorseful." He also said she had "diverted" personal expenditures," but declined to elaborate for publication. His office listed the date of her offense as May 1.2016.

After leaving Harmony ISD, Denson became a teacher at Union Hill ISD, where her husband, Dr. John Denson, is still high school principal. When her arrest was announced, Union Hill school board president James Parker said she had been placed on administrative leave two or three months earlier. As a term of her probation, Byrd's office said, Denson surrendered her teaching license.

The defendant, represented at sentencing by Gilmer attorney (and Upshur County Judge) Todd Tefteller, also has several other terms of probation. Some include paying a fine, court costs, and a fee to Upshur County Crime Stoppers, 400 hours of community service, undergoing an alcohol/ drug evaluation, attending classes for theft defendants, and training in "life skills."

Byrd represented the state at sentencing.

Local man sentenced for prohibited substance and items in correctional facility

By Phillip Williams

115th District Judge Dean Fowler sentenced 10 defendants on felony charges, and one for a misdemeanor offens, after all pleaded guilty between Feb. 2 and 23, Upshur County District Attorney Billy Byrd's office announced Friday.

Details of the felony sentencings in Gilmer were as follows, the office said:

Cory Neal Pitman, 27, of Gladewater, drew two concurrent prison terms Feb. 9 of five years for "prohibited substance and items in correctional facility," and 13 years for possession of a controlled substance--at least four, but fewer than 200 grams, of Butylone.

Butylone is a psychedelic and stiumulant drug with effects similar to methamphetamine and the drug known as Ecstasy.

Gilmer police investigated Pitman's April 16, 2018 correctional facility offense. The Upshur County Sheriff's Office probed the May 28, 2020 drug offense.

Pitman was also ordered to pay court costs and a fine. Byrd represented the state at sentencing; Longview attorney John Moore represented the defendant.

Roy Junior Culberson, 77, of Gilmer, was placed on four years probation of a 10-year prison term Feb. 2 for driving while intoxicated--subsequent offense.

The Texas Department of Public Safety investigated the May 9, 2019 offense.

Some terms of Culberson's probation include paying court costs, a fine, and a fee to Crime Stoppers, 300 hours of community service, having an interlock device on his vehicle for two years, attending a victim impact panel, suspension of his driver's license for one year (but also obtaining an "occupational license" which allows him to drive under restricted conditions), an alcohol-drug evaluation, and attending a DWI repeat offender school.

Byrd represented the state at sentencing. Gilmer attorney Matthew Patton represented Culberson.

Matthew Scott Convirs, 41, of Gilmer, was placed on four years probation of a 10-year prison term Feb. 9 for possession of a controlled substance--one gram or more, but less than four grams of tetrahydrocannabinol.

Some terms of his probation include court costs, a fine, paying a fee to Crime Stoppers, contributing to the crime victims fund, an attorney fee, 250 hours of community service, counseling, "life skills" training and an alcohol-drug evaluation.

Gilmer police investigated Convirs' Nov. 8, 2018 crime. Byrd represented the state at sentencing; Longview attorney Carl Dorrough represented Convirs.

Joe Mauel Gutierrez, 41, of Talco, received four years in prison Feb. 9 for burglary of a habitation. He was also ordered to pay court costs, a fine and attorney fee.

The sheriff's office probed the July 19, 2019 offense. Byrd represented the state; Moore represented Gutierrez.

Kristen Renae Denson, 46, of Gilmer, was placed on 10 years "deferred adjudication" probation Feb. 9 for theft of property of the value of $2,500 or more but less than $30,000 by public servant (see separate story).

Sandra Beth Collier, 43, of Big Sandy, was placed on five years "deferred adjudication" probation Feb. 9 for attempted aggravated assault--threatening with deadly weapon.

The sheriff's office investigated the May 24, 2020 offense. Some terms of probation include paying a court cost, fine, Crime Stoppers fee, 300 hours of community service, an alcohol-drug evaluation, life skills training, continuing any treatment and counseling as needed. Under the plea bargain, the court refused to consider an unfiled misdemeanor charge.

Deferred adjudication means no final conviction appears on a defendant's record if he/she successfully completes probation. When such probation is revoked, however, up to the maximum sentence for the crime can be imposed.

Byrd represented the state at sentencing; Gilmer attorney Joe Newsom represented Collier.

Michell Amos Doyle, 48, of Gilmer, received 15 years in prison Feb. 9 for possession of a controlled substance--at least four, but fewer than 200 grams of methamphetamine. She must also pay court costs and an attorney fee.

Gilmer police probed the Sept. 30, 2019 crime. Byrd and Dorrough handled the sentencing.

Bears fall to Daingerfield Tigers 6-4

A 7th inning rally came up short for the Gladewater Bears, losing 6-4 to Daingerfield.

Down 6-0 to Daingerfield, the Bears began to claw their way back into the game when DJ Allen was walked with no outs in the top of the 7th. The next batter, Zach Polanco, also got on with a walk.

single by K'havia Reese with one out before a single by Ben Alvarez would bring Polanco home.

With two outs, Tanner Gothard would single to score Reese and advance Alvarez to third. Eli Kates brought Alvarez home with a base hit before the Tigers were able to stop their bleeding and get the win 4-6. The loss is the third-in-a -ow for Gladewater after crushing Linden-Kildare 10-2 back on March 11th. On the 16th the Bears struggled on offense against Sabine, netting one hit in a 6-0 loss. Despite a 8-4 advantage in the hitting column against Hawkins on the 13th, Gladewater failed to convert the hits into runs, falling 2-6 to the Hawks. This puts the Bears at an even 7-7 on the season.

Lady Bears slam Daingerfield 22-10

Avery Glarborg pitched 11 strikeouts with only three walks to lead the Lady Bears to a 22-10 win over Daingerfield.

Livia Prince shined at the plate with a single, double, and three RBI's in addition to crossing home plate twice. Lexi Betts accounted for six runs, scoring four herself along with two RBI's.

Amazingly Gladewater stole 13 bases as a team, with Katelyn Smith leading with 3. This high scoring affair came on the heals of a pitchers' duel between Glarborg and Sabine's Callie Sparks. Glarborg gave up five hits while striking out 12 for Gladewater in the 2-0 loss to Sabine. Sparks allowed 1 hit with 11 strikeouts.

Bower tosses no-hitter in Lions' win

Matthew Bower recorded a no-hitter as the Union Grove Lions throttled Carlisle 15-0. The Indians gave up nine runs in three innings and went through three pitchers. Kenneth Johnson led the Lions with four RBI's followed by Carter Smith with three.

Union Grove began the season 0-3 before opening district play with a 2-1 win over rival Hawkins. That was apparently the spark they needed. The Lions have since been on a winning streak and are 6-3 and undefeated in district play. In the six game winning streak the Both runners advanced on a wild pitch and Allen would score on a Lions are averaging 13 runs per game while only allowing a single run per game.

Lady Lions shoot down Lady Hawks, 15-5

Hawkins scored three in the top of the 5th to pull within two of the Lady Lions, only to give up two runs in the bottom of the same inning. Union Grove went on to tack on six more in the following inning to close out the contest 15-5.

Katelyn Vaughn struck out 10 Lady Hawks while allowing only five hits. Vaughn also accounted for four UG runs with three RBI's and a run of her own. Sydney Chamberlain scored twice as well as bringing in two other runners. Emily Bible tagged home plate three times. With the win, the Lady Lions remain undefeated in district play.

Cardinals crush Redwater, 11-1

TheSabine Cardinals converted 10 hits into 11 runs to crush Redwater 11-1. Jace Burns gave up a home-run over right field to start the game, but quickly got a handle on things. Burns, along with relief pitcher, Alex Galyean, allowed only two more hits for the remainder of the game.

At the plate, both Carter Patterson and Caden Loveless notched three RBI's and a run apiece.

Matt Huey pitched a complete game for Sabine, facing off against Gladewater on the 16th. Huey earned the 6-0 win allowing only 1 hit while striking out 14. On the 13th the Cardinals traveled to Gilmer, falling to the Buckeyes 9-3. Sabine is 13-3 on the season.

Lady Cards win 2-0 over Lady Bears

Callie Sparks got the win for Sabine in a 2-0 decision over Gladewater. While Avery Glarborg only allowed the Lady Cards five hits, Addi Morris was able to cross home-plate twice for Sabine. Bailey Barrett singled in the bottom of the 5th to get Morris home first. Martie McAlister advanced Morris home with a single in the bottom of the 7th.
